

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 5

TRYON, N. C. SATURDAY, OCT. 29, 1932.

Est. 1-31-2

At The Churches

FIRST BAPTIST: "The Silken Cord and the Old North State" is the sermon subject at 11 o'clock service. Other services as usual.

CONGREGATIONAL: 11 a.m. Dr. John Brittan Clark preaching. Subject "Kept".

PRESBYTERIAN: Saluda 11 a.m. "The Bread of Life", Tryon 7:30 p. m. "True Safety". Christian Endeavor 5 o'clock. Columbus C. E. in charge of program.

EPISCOPAL: Holy Communion 8. Morning prayer and sermon 11 a.m. Sermon theme "The Motive in Religion."

CATHOLIC: Services at 8:30 a.m.

METHODIST: Dr. D. M. Litaker, Presiding Elder, will hold 4th quarterly conference at 11 a.m.

Today's News Headlines

Nina Wilcox Putnam asks divorce from her third husband. Norman Thomas attacks Roosevelt and Hoover. More politics. Panama City under martial law. Weather for Sunday; partly cloudy. Roosevelt and Hoover will speak over NBC network Monday evening from 9 to 11:30.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at Mimososa Inn at 1 p.m. with J. S. Massenburg in charge of the program.

Jolly Halloween Party

Tryon School was the scene of much merriment last night when the school children staged the usual Halloween entertainment. For best costumes the votes went to George Aid, Faye Sprague, Dorothy Milikin, and Jimmy Jackson.

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year