

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 1, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Ted Ballenger Explains

Ted Ballenger, who recently operated the Carolina Supreme Service Station, has an advertisement in today's Bulletin explaining why he gave up his lease to R. C. Burnette and P. L. Barnette. Mr. Ballenger has not yet announced his future plans.

SALUDA NEWS

By PHILIP HEATHERLY

Mrs. Vernie M. Austin comes to Saluda high school to take up the position left vacant by the resignation of Rev. H. Cary-Elwes. She will teach mathematics and history. Mrs. Austin has permanent residence at Rhodhiss, N. C. She is a graduate of Muskingum college, and is a specialist in mathematics. We are glad to welcome her into the school organization, and trust that her stay in Saluda will be pleasant.

The Saluda high school boys' and girls' basketball teams will play the Inman, S. C., high school teams Friday night at Inman. So far the Saluda boys have played seven games and won all seven. The girls have played seven games and have won three of them.

The Saluda teams will meet the Central High teams of Rutherfordton Tuesday at Saluda.

Mid-term examinations come on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Standard Service Station

The Standard Service Station formerly operated by R. C. Burnette is now temporarily in charge of Clarence Edwards, who has been with the company for some time.

Basketball Tonight

The double - header basketball game tonight between the Tryon high school graduates — former stars, and the present high school team, promises to be full of excitement. Edith Preston, former high school star played against Inman a few days ago and shot over 40 points. The admission of 10 and 15 cents is a low price just to see her play according to local experts.

Citizen Dies

Mrs. M. J. Kell, a resident of Tryon for several years, passed away this morning at the Kell apartments. Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at McFarland's Funeral Home.

New Year's Dance Was Delightful Affair

The annual New Year's dance given jointly by Oak Hall hotel and Pine Crest Inn last night was said to be the most elaborate affair of its kind ever given in Tryon. Good music, beautiful decorations, souvenirs and delicious refreshments aided tremendously in ringing in the New Year with joy and happiness.