HENRY M. BRAY TAKEN BY DEATH AT TRYON HOME

Tryon, Jan. 2. — Henry Martin Bray, prominent resident of Tryon and for a number of years treasurer of the Church of the Holy Cross (Episcopal) here, died at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at his home following an illness of several months.

The funeral services will be held at the Church of the Holy Cross Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with burial in the Tryon cemetery. Officiating will be the rector, the Rev. C. P. Burnett, assisted by Bishop Frank Hale Touret of Tryon.

Mr. Bray came to Tryon from Racine, Wis., about 25 years ago. For a number of years he was prominently connected with the Lynn Hosiery Mill, but retired several years ago. While serving as treasurer of the Church of the Holy Cross he was referred to as the most efficient treasurer in the Western North Carolina diocese.

Surviving are his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Edwin S. Lindsey, wife of a member of the faculty of the University of Chattanooga.

The honorary pallbearers will be Edward W. Frost and Dr. Earle Grady.

Active pallbearers will be: F. P. Bacon, Dr. M. C. Palmer, Dr. A. J. Jervy, G. H. Holmes, Julian Calhoun, Major Sharp, D. S. Blois and W. A. Dobbyn.

Interment private.

—Asheville Citizen.
