

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 7, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

BIG WEDDING

The outstanding event of Tryon today is the Grady-Crandall wedding which takes place at six o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross when Miss Elizabeth Grady, daughter of Dr. Earl Grady will become the wife of Mr. Harold W. Crandall, son of Mr. Frank W. Crandall. Weeks of preparation and the many beautiful presents have been the topic of conversation for days.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

On Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Tryon Gymnasium there will be a meeting of all people interested in forming a basketball league of the following teams:

Merchants team—J. V. Hall, manager.

Southern Mercery Co.—D. S. Blois, manager.

Fire Department team—Dr. B. Bishop and Walton Glover, Mgrs.

Manufacturing and Service Industries—C. M. Eargle, manager.

Other teams will be formed if there is enough interest shown.

These teams are to play every Thursday night at the Tryon Gym. A percentage standing of each team will be posted each week.

MAY LECTURE HERE

Dr. Edwin Barlow Evans, Phd., L.L.D., of Limestone college, Gaffney, S. C., who lectured recently at the Lanier library on the elements of literature, can be secured to deliver a series of lectures in Tryon every Thursday afternoon for eight weeks. Anyone interested should telephone Mrs. S. T. Crapo, phone 216, as soon as possible.

FIRE SUNDAY

Tryon firemen were called out Sunday afternoon to extinguish a small fire in the home of E. W. Upton where a wood box near a stove caught on fire. The damage was not large. A hole was burned in the floor.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Tryon and Columbus boys and girls basketball teams will play Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Tryon gymnasium. This is expected to be very exciting and draw a large audience.

John Calhoun Williams, 24 of Columbus and Miss Lois Fisher of Lynn, were married Saturday in Spartanburg. The groom is a son of John N. Williams.