

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 8, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Grady-Crandall

Miss Elizabeth Grady and Mr. Harold W. Crandall were married Monday evening at six o'clock at the Church of the Holy Cross which was beautifully decorated. The Rev. C. P. Burnett performed the ceremony. Mr. Tom Lyles, Jr., of Spartanburg played the wedding music on the church organ. Miss Mary Sharp was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Keith Grady, Mrs. Waverly Hester, Mrs. Dudley Smith, Mrs. John Searles Blackwell and Miss Austin Wilcox. Mr. Keith Grady was best man, and the groomsmen were Mr. Waverly Hester, Mr. William Gray, Mr. Theodore Wilcox, Mr. John Searles Blackwell and Mr. Frank D. Moore. Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party, out-of-town guests and a few friends repaired to the home of Miss Helen Stearns for a reception and buffet supper. After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Crandall are expected back in Tryon about February 1, to make their home at the Spanish Court.

Married

Miss Nancy Cathey, sister of Mrs. F. B. Edwards of Columbus, and a nurse recently in St. Luke's hospital, was married Monday morning in Waynesville to Mr. Albert Abel of Waynesville.

Migratory Season

R. B. Williams Game Warden of Polk county, gives hunters of migratory wild fowl warning that the season for hunting such game closed Monday, January 7.

Richards Again Offers Facilities For Pres. Dance

S. T. Wood, general chairman of the Birthday Ball for the President, to be held in Tryon on the evening of January 30th, stated yesterday that M. A. Richards, owner of Oak Hall hotel, had generously consented to donate the ball room at Oak Hall free of charge again this year. Mr. Richards is also contributing the service of his entire staff on the evening of the dance together with the other facilities at Oak Hall which serve to make these occasions such a delight to the people of the community.

Mr. Wood also announced that through the cooperation of Mr. Richards one of the finest orchestras in this section of the country has already been engaged for the ball.

Important committee appointments in connection with the ball will be made within the next few days, according to the chairman.

Today's Headlines

The Lindbergh trial is still claiming the attention of the world.

Roosevelt asks for eight and a half billion dollars to carry on work of United States this year.

Heavy fog halts traffic in New York. Visibility off Sandy Hook is only 10 feet.

Huey Long bitterly opposes policies of President Roosevelt.