Father of W. L. Burnett Buried

W. L. Burnett has returned from lower Spartanburg county where he attended the funeral yesterday of his father, R. C. Burnett, age 87, who died Wednesday. If Mr. Burnett had lived until March 9th he would have celebrated his 69th wedding anniversary. The deceased was one of Spartanburg county's most prominent citizens and had been active nearly all his life. He was a grandfather of R. C. Burnett of Tryon.

Lecture Next Week

The lecture course by Dr. Edwin Barlow Evans will start next Thursday, January 17, at the Lanier Library at 4 p. m. The subjects announced so far are: "Psychological Forces in Fiction," "Great Modern Novels," "Robert Browning, the Historian of the Soul," "Shakespeare, the Glory and Tragedy of the Anglo-Saxon," "John Brown's Body" or "The Magic Mountain," "Life Studies in Modern Drama," "The Philosophy of Contemporary Literature," "Poetry; The Dance of Life." Two dollars per person will pay for the entire course of eight lectures. Anyone interested may telephone Mrs. S. T. Crapo.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE
