

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 14, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Saluda High Cage Teams Capture Two

Saluda, Jan. 12.—Saluda high took both ends of a twin bill from the Hendersonville basketeers here Friday night. In the opening skirmish the girls won, 31 to 26, and the boys captured the feature, 30 to 8. The girls' game was especially interesting.

FUNERAL RITES FOR BRUMMITT

Raleigh, Jan. 14. — Dennis G. Brummitt, attorney general of North Carolina since 1925, will be laid to rest at Oxford in his native Granville county this afternoon.

The attorney general succumbed at his home here shortly after noon Saturday, following an illness of influenza which developed into pneumonia.

Governor Ehringhaus and Lieut.-Gov. A. H. Graham will head an official state delegation to attend the funeral services.

Kiwanis Tuesday

C. M. Howes will have charge of the Tryon Kiwanis program Tuesday when the club meets at 1 p. m., at Edgewood Inn. W. E. Kilpin will give the current events talk.

Dr. J. B. Clark Is Spartanburg Speaker

Dr. John Brittan Clark, chairman of the Underprivileged Child and Vocational Guidance Committee of the Tryon Kiwanis club has been selected to give the chief address at the Spartanburg Kiwanis club Thursday noon in Spartanburg at the Cleveland hotel. The occasion will be the celebration of the anniversary of Kiwanis International.

Officers Chosen At Sunny View Grange Meeting

Columbus, Jan. 12.—The Sunny View Grange met Friday evening in its regular session. After the literary program, new officers were elected for the year.

The following are the new officers: Master, F. W. Taylor; overseer, T. E. McKee; lecturer, Miss Eunice Whiteside; chaplain, Miss Addie Lee Wilson; treasurer, I. M. Powell; secretary, Melville Powell; assistant steward, Gertrude Whitesides; steward, Laurence Whiteside; lady assistant Steward, Miss Nellie Jones, and gate keeper, Laxton Jones.

The executive committee consists of the following members: Mack McQuinn, Norman Elliott, and Mattie Mae Williams.