E. B. Cloud Introduces Absentee Ballot Law

Raleigh, Jan. 16.—Representative E. B. Cloud, of Polk, who was denied the Democratic nomination because the state board of elections charged illegal use of the absentee ballot, has introduced a bill in the House to repeal the absentee ballot law for Polk county.

His bill, referred to the committee on elections and election laws, headed by Sparger, of Stokes county, would prohibit the use of absentee ballots in both primary and general elections in Polk county.—Asheville Citizen.

Basketball Results

The first engagements of the Town basketball league took place Wednesday night at the Tryon gym when the Firemen's team defeated the Merchants team 30-10, and the Small Industries group defeated the Southern Mercerizing-Lynn team 14-4. An enthusiastic crowd of spectators witnessed this initial performance of former players. Interest in the league is mounting and promises to be one of Tryon's most active forms of recreation, which will include a larger number of men to benefit by it.

Blois At Rotary

Douglas S. Blois will have charge of the Rotary program Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall.
