Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, JAN. 19, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Dr. Taylor at P.-T. A.

Dr. George F. Taylor of New York, who is spending the winter in Tryon will speak Monday afternoon at the Tryon P.-T. A. meeting to be held at the school auditorium. Dr. Taylor has addressed the local organization on other occasions and has made a lasting impression. He will speak Monday in place of the program scheduled for Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn, who were called away on account of Mr. Flynn's father's illness.

Honors Guests

Priestly Conyers, III, will entertain about twenty-five friends with a dance this evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Priestly Conyers, Jr., in honor of his guests, James Crook, Richard Manning, and Sam Means of Spartanburg. Music will be furnished by Julian.

The Rotary and Kiwanis clubs have endorsed the movement to get a federal building for Tryon and to petition the county commissioners to ask the state for a term of court each year to try civil cases. The Rotary club is also backing a movement to get a federal appropriation to help farmers terrace the hillsides and prevent further erosion.
