

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 7 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 28, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

United Dry Forces Meet In Columbus

The United Dry Forces will hold a county-wide meeting this evening at 7:30 in the Columbus Baptist church. Representatives from every township in the county are expected to attend.

Highway Projects

A highway construction program costing $5,640,770 will be carried out in 22 Western North Carolina counties as the funds are made available by the legislature, the State Highway and Public Works commission announced Saturday. The program for Polk county includes new construction, state highways, $138,000; new surface treatment, state highways, $40,000; total state, $178,000. No county projects.

Hunt Club Dates

The Tryon Hounds hunting dates have been announced as follows: Block House on Wednesday. Jim Fisher's place on Saturday. Hounds leave Kennels at 10:30 in the morning.

O. Vance Johnson

Funeral services for O. Vance Johnson, 36, who died Saturday at Baltimore, Md. after a month's illness, will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. V. Johnson, 609 North church street, Spartanburg, conducted by the Rev. F. E. Dibble Interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Johnson attended Wofford college. During the World War he served in the aviation corps. For several years he was connected with the Geer Drug Co. He had resided in Spartanburg most of the time until last fall when he moved to Tryon. Surviving are his widow, the former Miss Marguerite Simmons of Johnston, S C, a daughter, Rachel, his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Louis P. Johnson of Goldsboro, N. C., H. G. Johnson, Elmer C. Johnson. Bessie, Mary, Allene and Sara Johnson, all of Spartanburg.

Box Seats Extra

Some people have the impression that the purchase of a box seat ticket entitles them to admission to the President's Ball at Oak Hall next Wednesday evening. This is a mistake. The reserved box seats are 25 cents each in addition to the regular $1 admission price.