

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Published every day except Sunday

SETH M. VINING, Editor

The Rev. James M. Justice and Mrs. Justice are expected to arrive in Hendersonville this week from Buenas Aires to visit Mr. Justice's father, S. J. Justice. The Justices are returning on a furlough after six years in the foreign mission field.—20 years ago today, in the Asheville Citizen.

"Kiwanis in Brooklyn has never been motivated by a greater stimulus to go forward than at the present moment. We must inject into the civic business and social life of our borough the spirit of Kiwanis. Accept the challenge by adding new members, expecting much of our present members, filling open classifications and looking backward only to perfect the present."—Brooklyn, New York.

Dan Merwin and Joey Merwin have arrived from Illinois for a visit with their mother, Mrs. F. P. Bowes.

Miss Lydia Edwards of Mill Spring had an operation for appendicitis Monday at St. Luke's hospital.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Baptist church will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. Y. Wilkins. Mrs. S. E. Watson will be joint hostess with Mrs. Wilkins.

Mrs. Alice W. and Miss ~~...~~ giana Titus of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests at Oak Hall hotel.

Attorney J. S. Massenburg of Raleigh arrived in Tryon Monday.

Why Have Rector's Do My Cleaning

?

"Because for more than five years he has been doing first class dry cleaning in Tryon and has established a reputation for dependableness.

"Because just by reaching for my telephone I can get prompt service. He will send for my clothes, do the work satisfactorily and deliver them when and where I need them."

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER

For Good Shepherd Fingering Yarns and imported Scotch Yarn see Miss Burtenshaw in Mrs. Rhodes' Shoppe every morning.—Adv.

-PHONE-

Johnston's Dairy

for

GRADE -A- MILK

Real Estate - Rentals

W. M. HESTER

Sales Manager Gillette Estates

PHONE 37

Peoples Insurance Agency

J. B. HESTER, MGR.

ALL KINDS of INSURANCE

PHONE 37

Hester Bldg. Tryon, N. C.