Basketball Tonight

The local high school gymnasium tonight will be the scene of what promises to be the two best games of the local town league. All four teams are steadily improving in the art of passing and handling themselves, and with the competition growing stronger as each week goes by, the teams will find tonight that to win they will have to display all they have. Good sportsmanship is steadily improving and all that goes to make it a better game. The first game will start promptly at 7:30 and all are urged to be there on time. The first game will see the up and going Firemen lock horn with the always formidable Merchant team. The second game will find the Industrial team pitted against the hard fighting Sounarco-Lynn team. Be sure to be there. Plenty of seats for everyone.

HAND-OUTS — Various and sundry bills have been introduced in the Legislature to use state highway gasoline and license taxes for purposes other than building roads. Some of the measures would have gas tax money reduce local government road debts while others would require the highway commission to pave streets in cities. One million dollars in highway money is already going into the general fund and the budget commission has endorsed this policy for the next two years. If you have any definite ideas on the subject of how gasoline and license taxes should be spent the present might not be a bad time to make them known.

SOW LESPEDEZA NOW!

PUBLIC HEALTH — Senator Griffin, of Franklin, introduced a bill to require your child (if you have one) to be vaccinated against diphtheria between the age of six and 12 months but it ran into some rocks in the health committee. It developed that diphtheria anti-toxin sensitizes some patients against other vaccinations with "horse" serums. The committee couldn't agree on whether it was better to allow the child to be exposed to diphtheria or take chances on barring it from vaccination against certain other contagious diseases.

DOUBT REMOVED — Former Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain, of Rocky Mount, has let it be publicly known that he is seriously considering running for Senator in opposition to Senator Josiah W. Bailey in the Democratic primaries next spring. Nevertheless, there are some rather astute political observers around this Capital City who say they believe Mr. Fountain's announcement is intended as a blow at the potential candidacy of Governor Ehringhaus, who beat him by a nose three years ago, more than as a thrust at Senator Bailey. The governor doesn't appear worried.

SPEED LOST — Not a few legislators express the opinion that rapid passage over sections of the revenue and appropriations bills is not going to save much time in the long run. They figure that opponents of the proposals of spending and taxing will hold their fire until the bills get on the floors of House and Senate and then loose their bombardments. It may or may not be significant that anti-administratorists are holding their peace in committee meetings.
