

The Tryon Daily Bulletin
Published every day except Sunday
SETH M. VINING, Editor

Mr. Snyder and sister, Miss Louise Snyder of Petoskey, Mich. who visited Tryon years ago have taken the Beck cottage for two months.

Miss Harriet Lee, instructor in English at Asheville Normal, spent the week-end in Tryon with her aunts, Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Parsons.

Mrs. T. J. Kennedy and Miss Cora Lipscomb returned Monday from Gastonia where they visited Mrs. J. L. Mason.

A baby son was born to Mrs. Nina Hughes, 27, on a station platform while she waited for an elevated train to take her to a Chicago hospital.

OK
STRAYED or STOLEN. Large Black and White Collie from our home Monday morning. Answers to name "Laddie." Reward if returned to Mrs. R. H. Brady, phone 226-W.

Tryon's Theatre

MONDAY & TUESDAY

Louisa M. Alcott's

LITTLE MEN

with

RALPH MORGAN

ERIN O'BRIEN-MOORE

and a host of child stars

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY

Will Rogers

in

HANDY ANDY

with

Peggy Wood, Conchita Montenegro, Mary Carlisle, Roger Imhof, Robert Taylor

Tea at the Lanier Library on March 2 and 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Ford returned Sunday from Florida.

-PHONE-

Johnston's Dairy

for

GRADE -A- MILK

Peoples Insurance Agency

J. B. HESTER, MGR.

ALL KINDS of INSURANCE

PHONE 37

Hester Bldg. Tryon, N. C.

SPECIALIZED SERVICE

When your radio needs repairs, you should be careful that the repair man called, KNOWS WHAT TO DO.

Our radio service man has the benefit of years of experience and can render expert service on any make of radio. Is a member of Radio Manufacturers Association. Call us when you want the best available service.

A V A N T ELECTRIC CO.

Phone 51