

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 20, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

P.-T. A. Party Friday

The annual bridge-game party for the Tryon P.-T. A. will be held Friday evening at the Parish House. The admission is fifty cents per person and pays for everything including games, refreshments and a chance to win one of the following thirty prizes. Pick out the one you would like to win. Then come and have a lot of fun:

Dixie Store, 1 pound coffee; Blue Ridge Weavers, pottery vase; Jackson & Jackson, prints for a dress; A&P, 1 pound of coffee; Marshall Ballew, 1 pound of coffee; Wood-Zoo Shop, set of hooked hats; Appalachian Weavers, handwoven bag; Arledge Hardware, double boiler; Exclusive Ladies' Shop, bridge score pad; Ponce de Leon Beauty Shop, 1 shampoo and wave set; The Ballenger Co., quart of mayonnaise and 1 pound of coffee; Ballenger-Jackson Co., slik hose; Jackson's Beauty Shoppe, shampoo and wave set; Missildine's Pharmacy, 1 pound candy; Cowan's Grocery, 1 pound candy; Tryon Shoe Hospital, bottle shoe polish; City Market, roast; Southern Public Utilities, electric iron; Rector's

—Continued on Back Page—

Tryon Teams Defeat Duncan

Two well-played interesting basketball games entertained Tryon fans Tuesday night at the local gymnasium when Tryon high school boys and girls defeated the Duncan, S. C., school. The boys won their game 34-33; the girls' score was 14-8. C. M. Eargle and Walt Glover officiated over both games which were marked with good sportsmanship.

Hospitable Hospital Meeting at Landrum

Dr. Chas. G. Sewall addressed the Tryon Kiwanis club Tuesday at 1 p. m., at the Landrum Imperial hotel where a big chicken dinner was served, and cherry pie for dessert. Louis A. Avant gave an entertaining current events talk. Dr. Sewall gave an outline of the work and needs of St. Luke's hospital. His talk was so convincing that John G. Landrum, president of the Mutual Bank stated that he and Hoyt O. Prince would interview the people of Landrum to see what they could do. J. N. Jackson of Tryon, as a "citizen of Landrum" offered $10 as a starter for the Landrum fund.

Banks Close For George Washington

The Tryon Bank & Trust Co., and the Mutual Bank of Landrum will close on Friday, February 22, in celebration of the birthday of General George Washington, first president of the United States, who is known to school children as the man who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Firemen Feted

J. N. Jackson entertained the Tryon firemen with a supper Tuesday night at the Edgewood Inn in appreciation of the work the volunteer firemen do for Tryon. Chief W. W. Cerasman, Mr. Jackson and the former Fire Chief of Columbia, S. C., C. J. Lynch, were the chief speakers. Ed. Wynn was also on the radio last night.