

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, FEB. 22, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

George Edwards

Landrum, Feb. 21.—George Edwards, 89, well known Polk county resident, died Thursday at his home near Mill Spring after an illness.

He was born and reared in this section and was a farmer.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a. m., at the Mill Spring Baptist church, of which he was a member, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Trammel, assisted by the Methodist minister. Interment will follow in the churchyard.

Pallbearers will be Granville and Henry Thompson, Frank and Twitty Jackson, William Wilson and Elbert Green.

Surviving is one brother.—Spartanburg Herald.

Cloud Fight Today

Due to the absence of Representative E. B. Cloud Thursday, the scheduled fight on his bill to increase the membership of the Polk county board of commissioners from three to six members was postponed until Friday.—Asheville Citizen.

See "Heaven Bound", a religious musical pageant with all - negro cast in the Parish House on the evening of March 7. Auspices of the Methodist Missionary society.—Adv. 3 t. 22, 1, 5

Basketball Results

Taking an early lead and holding it throughout the entire game the Industrials defeated the hard fighting Merchants by the score of 36 to 16. Jess Walker with 18 points was the leading high scorer, while Clyde Edwards ran a close second with 10 points. For the Merchants, Nelson Leonard and Jones divided honors in the scoring, while all their teammates played a good, clean game. Dr. Bishop refereed this game which was played in the best of spirit.

In the second game the Firemen after getting a slow start defeated the Soumerco-Lynn boys by the score of 18 to 4. Jim Fisher was the outstanding player for the Firemen and with his 14 points his team was never in danger of defeat. Soumerco-Lynn played a hard game and never gave up for a minute, but just couldn't get started to clicking. J. C. Williams was the leading player. Nelson Leonard and Walt Glover officiated in this game. A big crowd saw the games. Green Creek Girls did not show up

—Continued on Back Page—

Hunting Season Over

The hunting season for rabbits and birds closed on February 20th. Trapping season is also over. All violators of the law will be prosecuted according to R. Burton Williams, county game warden.