

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Opera Today

Giacomo Puccini's ever popular opera "La Boheme" will be broadcast in its entirety over station WWNC today as the concluding performance in this season's Metropolitan Opera broadcasts. Lucrezia Bori, famous soprano, will be heard in the role of "Mimi", and Geraldine Farrar, former Metropolitan Opera prima donna, will serve as the raconteuse. The broadcast will begin at 1:55 o'clock.

"La Boheme" will complete the fourth season of Metropolitan Opera over NBC networks. Cincenzo Bellezza will conduct and the opera will be sung in Italian.

Hope for Life of Howe Abandoned

Washington, March 22. — All hope for the recovery of Louis McHenry Howe, first secretary to President Roosevelt, was abandoned tonight by attending physicians. Howe's condition became more grave when complications set in. He suffered an attack of pleurisy in addition to the bronchial and cardiac attacks which hent him to his bed more than a week ago. —Spartanburg Herald.

Hunting Dates

Tryon hounds hunting dates for week beginning March 25:
Monday—Covered Bridge.
Wednesday—Jim Fisher place.
Friday—La Morte place.
Hounds will leave kennels Monday and Friday at 10:30; Wednesday at 2:30.

Harvard Dean to Speak at Meeting Of Doctors

Dr. David L. Edsall, dean of the medical school of Harvard University, will address members of the Spartanburg County Medical Society Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. William Sheridan in Park Hills.

A visitor at Tryon at present on a vacation, Dr. Edsall was born in 1869 in Hamburg, N. J.

He graduated from Princeton University in 1890, and was professor of therapeutics at the University of Pennsylvania during 1907-10, where he remained as professor of medicine in 1910-11.

At that time he was appointed professor of clinical medicine at Harvard. He has been dean of Harvard since 1918.

He is the author of various articles in scientific journals and systems.

He is a member of the American Association of Physicians and other distinguished organizations.

A large attendance is expected at the meeting Monday.—Spartanburg Herald.

Singing Convention

All day singing at Penile Baptist church Sunday, March 24. All singers and lovers of good music are cordially invited. Will use Vaughan's and Stamp's 1935 books. Professor Wade H. Humphries of Gaffney, S. C., will be president, the best in the south.