

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Remarkable Growth Of The Tryon Bank & Trust Co.

The remarkable growth of the Tryon Bank & Trust Company has been recorded in the Tryon Daily Bulletin from time to time as statements have been published every quarter. In this issue of the Bulletin is published a condensed statement as of March 4. It shows an increase in deposits over last quarter (three months ago) of $50,000.00. Deposits on December 27, 1934, were $330,296.24. On March 4, they had increased to $380,852.09. The bank is a member of the Federal Reserve System and deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Free Movies Here Saturday Morning

The Riding & Hunt club will present some free moving pictures on Saturday morning at the Tryon Theatre for the benefit of farmers of Polk county. There will be two shows lasting an hour each. The first begins at 9 a. m., and the second showing begins at 10 a. m. Manager C. W. Nessmith has donated the use of his theatre for the purpose. Moving pictures of the mountains of Western North Carolina showing wild animals and forest fires will be among the chief features of the six reel show.

DONORS TO HOSPITAL ARE ADDED TO LIST

President Chas. G. Sewall of the St. Luke's Hospital Association announces an additional list of donors to the increasing membership of the St. Luke's Hospital Association which is seeking funds to maintain the charity work of the hospital. Anyone desiring to donate to this fund may send his check to B. L. Ballenger or direct to the hospital. The additional members are as follows: Miss Margaret Sheppard, Jerry D. Drew, T. A. Rippey, M. J. Pettigrew, Mrs. Edgar E. Leonard, Mrs. Chas G. Little.

Townsend Plan Speaker To Be In Columbus On Sat.

W. B. Fisher, state manager of the Townsend Pension Plan writes that he will be at Columbus courthouse on Saturday, April 6, at 1 p. m., to speak on the Townsend plan. He writes that he is speaking every day to crowds from 500 to 2,500 people.

Golf Friday

The woman's Golf tournament will be held Friday afternoon at the Tryon Country club. Visiting guests in the community should arrange with the Pro, Larry Brooks, for their handicaps.