Dance Tonight

The annual Horse Show dance will be held tonight at Oak Hall hotel. Members of the Riding & Hunt club and Exhibitors at the show are invited guests. Others may attend by paying the script admission of $2 per couple.

A Real Holiday

Wednesday will be a real holiday for Tryonites and visitors who attend the Horse Show at Harmon Field. Everyone can enjoy the full day's entertainment without having to worry over preparing meals. Home folk and visitors can go to Harmon Field prepared to spend the day and have a good time. Attractive box and plate lunches are being prepared in the homes of the committee women. The contents of these lunches are listed in the advertisement on the right. Mrs. H. C. Metcalf is chairman of the lunch committee.

Paying for Tickets

Chairman George A. Cathey of the Reservations committee states that many people have been considerate and have been coming in today to settle for their reservations for parking space and box seats. This will avoid a lot of delay on the day of the show.
