

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Garden Pilgrimage Saturday Afternoon

The Tryon Garden club will conduct its annual pilgrimage to the following town gardens: Mrs. W. R. Kales, Mrs. Julian Calhoun Mrs. W. C. White, Mrs. S. T. Crapo, Mrs. M. O. Kelley, The Misses Nash, and Mrs. Homer Elertson. The tour will begin at 2:30 on Saturday afternoon in front of Missildine's Pharmacy. After the gardens are visited, tea will be served at the home of Mr. Carter P. Brown, Pine Crest Inn, who is an honorary member of the Garden club. Anyone who would like to go on the tour, should notify Mrs. H. C. Metcalf, and anyone who has an extra seat or car for the tour should get in touch with Mrs. Metcalf. Reservations are $1 per person.

Greenville Horse Show Today & Sat.

The Greenville Horse Show is being held tonight at 8 o'clock and on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 8 p. m. A total of 34 classes will be presented. J. D. Massey is secretary of the show. A number of Tryonites always attend the Greenville show. Their entry blank also advertised the Tryon show.

Davis Paroled

Governor Ehringhaus today paroled Wallace B. Davis, former president of the Central Bank of Asheville.

Lanier Club Meet

The annual meeting of the Lanier club was held on Thursday afternoon at the Lanier Library with the retiring president, Mrs. George Brockenbrough presiding. Splendid reports were given of the year's work. The membership committee reported 122 paid members and an honorary membership bringing the total to 142. The librarian gave an excellent report which will be published in The Polk County News. The concert committee reported a successful season of three delightful musical concerts for the community which left a satisfactory balance in the treasury. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. E. W. Peattie, president; Mrs. Carroll P. Rogers, vice-president; Mrs. G. L. Canfield, vice-president; Mrs. E. E. Missildine, secretary; Mrs. Bernard Sharp, treasurer. The directors named were Mrs. George Brockenbrough, Mrs. Willis Parsons, Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., and Miss Susan Harper.

Easter Is Here

The Easter egg hunts for the children, the greeting cards from friends and the attractive display of dresses, and hats in Tryon stores remind us all that Easter is here and that it is an occasion for rejoicing among all true Christians.

Tax List Now

The people of Tryon Township should list their taxes with G. H. Holmes by Saturday or a penalty of 25 percent will be added to their taxes, according to an advertisement that has been published in The Bulletin.