

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Tryon Winners At The Greenville Horse Show

S. A. Bingham and daughter, Miss Ann Bingham, won the trophy for the parent and child class in the Greenville (S. C.) Horse Show on Saturday afternoon. They rode their gray horses, Kildare and Blue Belle. The show was called off Saturday evening on account of rain.

Spartanburg Gardens

The Spartanburg Garden clubs will conduct a tour on Tuesday, April 23, for the benefit of the pre-tuberculosis children. Admission 50 cents. The tour will last from 10 a. m., to 7 p. m. and will take in the gardens of Mesdames R. W. Dodgen, Sloan Crawford, John Cart, Walter Montgomery, L. C. Dodge, J. L. VonGlahn, Henry Blackford, L. J. Blake, Arthur Ligon, Walter Allen, Ben Montgomery, H. M. Cleveland, H. F. Chrietzberg, Chas. E. Band, Harry Leonard, Clifford Hayes, Howard Chapman and Mr. John Cantrell, also Converse college.

Money for Baseball

Secretary J. M. Early of the Tryon Baseball club says the league games will begin soon, and that more money is needed for equipment. Anyone caring to donate something can leave the money with the Treasurer J. B. Hester at the bank or send it to Secretary J. M. Early. Buy a season ticket now and that will help.

Commencement At Columbus

The baccalaureate sermon of Stearns high school was preached Sunday evening at the Columbus Baptist church by the Rev. Chas. B. Trammel, pastor. Class Day exercises will be held tonight and the final program will be given Thursday evening with an address by Dr. E. B. Jenkins, noted lecturer and world traveler.

Flower Show On Saturday

Tryon flower lovers who remember the beautiful flower show last year at the Parish House are looking forward to an even more successful affair this coming Saturday at the Parish House. Miss M. E. Young is chairman again this year.

Stolen Goods Are Recovered

Some clothing stolen from Rector's during the week-end were recovered this morning when they were found wrapped in a rug in some bushes near the railroad track. Officers are still working on the case.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Edge-wood Inn.