Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Settle-Rector

Announcement is made in today's Spartanburg Herald of the engagement of Miss Gillie Jane Settle of Inman, S. C., to Mr. Byron Douglas Rector of Tryon. The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. George F. Settle made the announcement at a party last Saturday afternoon at Inman. The groom is the son of Mr. N. R. Rector of Tryon and is associated with his father in business.

We Think So, Too

In the current issue of the Mercury magazine appears an advertisement of Harper advertising the book, "The First Woman" by Margaret Culkin Banning, one of America's most appealing writers.

Remember !

Saturday is the last day to register for the coming Town and School Board election. If you have moved here since last election or have become of age since then, REGISTER now with B. E. Samples, the registrar.

Also

If you haven't listed your taxes with G. H. Holmes by the end of this month you will be penalized by the county commissioners. Taxes are high enough without you having to pay more. It doesn't cost you anything to list taxes. So why procrastinate?

Most Assuring

The advertisement of the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., in today's issue of The Bulletin is most assuring to depositors and is one of the reasons why the local bank is steadily growing.

Silver Up

Washington, April 24. — Responding to leaping world silver prices, President Roosevelt tonight boosted the government's offer for newly-mined domestic metal at 77.57 cents an ounce.

His proclamation, effective on all silver produced from United States deposits today and hereafter, added more than six cents an ounce to the domestic miner's income over what the treasury has been paying and world markets bidding.

The announcement, made by Secretary Morgenthau, was received jubilantly by senators from silver states who have forecast that $1 silver soon would be reached and eventually the coinage value of $1.29 cents an ounce.

46 Spenders

Washington, April 24. — President Roosevelt today charted 46 governmental channels through which four billion dollars will move to men who have no jobs, but left until tomorrow the naming of the men to have charge of the sluice gates.

The designating of this vast machine, definitely breaking the ice on the job-giving program, in itself caused some stir in the capital. Its administration alone will require the employment of several thousand white collar workers in Washington.

But speculative interest centered on the all-important allotment board to be named tomorrow. With the President as its chairman, it alone will say how much will be spent for what.
