Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Tryon Store Hours May Be Changed

A meeting of Tryon storekeepers will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the Ballenger Co., furniture department upstairs for the purpose of discussing the advisability of changing during the summer months, the store opening hour from 8 a. m. to 7 a. m., and the closing hour from 6 p. m. to 5 p. m., in order to give more daylight recreation hours to employees and at the same time give the full number of hours of service to the public.

Flower Show Today At Parish House

Tryon's Second Annual Flower Show will be held this afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. For a small admission the general public will be able to see in one place some of the community's most beautiful fruit flowers and pot plants. For the young people interested in flowers it will be an opportunity to learn the names and qualities of some of these plants that help to make many Tryon homes so attractive.

Harry B. Thayer, retired telephone magnate, made this sage observation at the end of his long business career: "It is easy to fool yourself; more difficult to fool those you work for; still more difficult to fool those you work with; and almost impossible to fool those who work under your direction."
