Riding & Hunt Club Last Meet Thursday

The Tryon Riding & Hunt club will hold its last meeting of the season on Thursday night at 8 o'clock at Pine Crest Inn. President F. J. McDonald states that it is important that all bills be presented before that meeting.

All Commissioners File

At time of going to press today the only candidates who had filed for election to the Town offices were Mayor E. E. Missildine and the present board of commissioners composed of R. S. Jackson, F. P. Bacon and Marshall Ballew. Any other candidate desiring to have his name printed on the ticket must file at once as the law requires that the ballots be turned over to the register three days before the election.

No candidates for cemetery commission has filed.

Lightner-Hopf

The following announcement has been received by friends in Tryon: "Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ashley Lightner have the honor of announcing the marriage of their daughter, Alice, to Mr. Ernest Joachim Hopf, on Monday, April the twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, New York City."

The talented bride is a prominent magazine writer and is the author of a number of books. She is a frequent visitor in Tryon at the home of her parents.
