

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1935 Est. 1-31-23

Erskine at Rotary

Ralph C. Erskine, former furniture manufacturer, will talk at the Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. Mr. Erskine started his business in Tryon years ago and it developed into one of the biggest things of its kind in the country.

Hester and Helms In First Tennis Match

Vice-president Julian B. Hester of the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., and holder of the first championship tennis cup in Tryon defeated Town Manager Claude H. Helms in the first match of the 1935 championship tournament on Wednesday at the Tryon Country club. The score was 6-0; 8-6. The playing was close and hard fought, as neither man had played in a long time. President F. P. Bowes of the Tryon Tennis Association, is in charge of the tournament.

Mrs. Julian B. Carpenter Passes

Mrs. Julian B. Carpenter of Landrum passed away early this morning at St. Luke's hospital following an emergency operation on Saturday. Funeral services will be held some time this Saturday. Further details will be announced in Friday's Bulletin.

MURDER AT THE VANITIES

"Murder at the Vanities" is the name of the picture on at Tryon's Theatre today and Friday.

Baseball Meeting Is Called For Friday

A business meeting of all directors and players will be held on Friday night at 7:30 at the Town Hall. The first game in Tryon will be played Saturday at Harmon Field.

Baby Hospital Drive To Open Middle of May

The annual campaign to secure funds for the support of the Spartanburg Baby Hospital at Saluda, N. C., will be inaugurated here Tuesday, May 14, it was announced Tuesday night following a meeting of the hospital's finance committee at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The suggested goal for the campaign is $4,500, it was stated.

Wallace DuPre is chairman of the finance committee.—Spartanburg Herald.

First Game Saturday

The first game in Tryon for the Industrial League will be played on Saturday afternoon at 3:30. The team needs money, so come out and see an interesting ball game. Admission 25 cents.

Rummage Sale At The Parish House Saturday

The St. Agnes Guild will hold a rummage sale Saturday from 2 to 6 p. m., at the Parish House. The sale will include one lot of window shutters and screens as well as many useful articles for the household and personal use.