

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Pioneer Resident Died On Tuesday

M. W. Page, 94, died Tuesday, May 7, at 3:05 p. m., following a short illness at the home of his son, J. J. Page, in Green Creek. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church of Landrum with the Rev. C. B. Prince and the Rev. N. A. Merton officiating. His grandsons will act as pallbearers and the granddaughters as flower bearers.

The deceased was born on September 15, 1841. He was a Confederate Veteran, member of Co., B., Heavy Artillery, 13th regiment. He operated a meat market in Tryon years ago before retiring and later made his home in Tryon with his daughter, Mrs. George A. Gash.

Mr. Page is survived by two sons, J. B. Page of Arden, N. C., and J. J. Page of Campobello, S. C., route 4; and one daughter, Mrs. Gash of Asheville. Also 21 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren.

Tennis Results

The seventh, eighth and ninth matches in the first rounds of the Tryon Tennis Association tournament were played Tuesday with W. M. Hester defeating F. P. Bowes 2-6; 6-2; 6-1; Fred McLaughlin defeated M. B. Caldwell 6-2; 7-5; C. P. Rogers, Sr., defeated Nelson Jackson, III., 6-0; 6-0. Interest is increasing this week as the players in their best condition are meeting one another in keen competition.

Election Results

Seventy-three people voted in Tryon's Municipal and school election Tuesday and elected E. E. Missildine for mayor; F. P. Bacon, W. M. Ballew and R. S. Jackson for commissioners; R. H. Brady, Mrs. C. W. Morgan and Seth M. Vniing for cemetery commission. For the School Board Nelson Jackson, Jr., James Lankford and Douglas S. Blois.

Columbus Election

J. R. Burgess, a Democrat, was elected mayor of Columbus, county seat of Polk county in the non-partisan election held Tuesday. Mr. Burgess, who was unopposed, received 72 votes. Three commissioners were elected from five candidates in the field. Those elected and their votes were: A. L. McMurray, 57 votes; Robert Walker, 55; and J. F. Ormand, 53. They defeated D. J. Burnett, who received 51 votes and G. C. Dedmond, who received 25 votes.

David Clark Coming

The Rev. David Cartwright Clark, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, Washington, D. C., will arrive this week for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Brittan Clark. Mr. Clark will fill the pulpit for his father at the Erskine Memorial church on Sunday. Dr. Clark, who has been regaining his health nicely, expects to assist in the services.