

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 13, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Donkey Baseball

Baseball on trained donkeys will be a feature in Tryon Tuesday night at Harmon Field. This new fad has made a big hit in Asheville and Hendersonville and furnishes a lot of wholesome entertainment that keeps the fans in an uproar.

Kiwanis At Lake

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Lake Lanier Inn. J. E. Brownlee has charge of the program and the Rev. L. R. Akers, Jr., will speak. W. E. Kilpin will give the current events.

Tryon Wins!

Tryon's baseball team defeated Hazlewood Saturday 10-3 at Hazlewood. Foster and Capps formed the local battery.

Drama Fortnightly

Chairman Frank D. Moore requests all people who have taken part in Drama Fortnightly plays or produced one or staged one, and any others who are vitally interested to meet at the Parish House on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock for a discussion of possible plans for the future.

The Mollie Morris Circle of the Methodist church has postponed its meeting until May 22.

Graduation Exercises Tonight, Tryon High

Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson college, recognized as the most popular man in South Carolina, will deliver the commencement address tonight. Dr. Daniel is a noted chautaugua speaker as well as an outstanding educator. The program is as follows:

Processional — Mrs. Walter Jones.

Invocation—Rev. L. J. Keels.
Salutatory Address — A l e n e Ward.

Piano Solo, "Nocturne-In E flat" by (Chopin)—Rachel Jackson.

Commencement Address—Dr. D. W. Daniel.

Presentation of Diplomas — Mr. Nelson Jackson, Jr.

Auld Lang Syne; Alma Mater Song—Senior class.

Valedictory Address — Rachel Jackson.

Murrill-Steiner

Mrs. Hugh Murrill of Tryon and Mr. Jefferson Steiner of Birmingham, Ala., were married Sunday evening in Spartanburg. They will make their home here until sometime in June.

Kirk Jones Dead

News has reached Tryon of the death last night of Kirk Jones of Saluda, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Jones. Mr. Jones worked in a garage at Flat Rock and it is said that his car turned over between Saluda and Flat Rock.