Columbia Speaker

Prof. C. C. Curtis, retired, of Columbia University, New York will address the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Lake Lanier Inn. Prof. Curtis was formerly professor of botany at Columbia. Julian B. Hester has charge of the program.

Court of Honor

The Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor will meet Friday evening at 7:30 at the Tryon school building. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele will bring his moving picture machine and show some interesting new pictures of Scout work.

15 Stills Still

Sheriff Ed. Newman's staff has destroyed 15 stills, caught 11 men, and captured 150 gallons of liquor. The stills were large and capable of producing an enormous quantity of liquor. Deputies H. D. Smith and J. B. Case are assisting the sheriff in his work.

Dance at Columbus

The Columbus baseball team is giving a dance at Boxwood Inn on Friday evening to raise money for the ball club.

SWANN RITES FRIDAY P. M.

Funeral services for W. F. Swann, 65, who passed away Wednesday about noon in Asheville, will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Lynn Baptist church with the Rev. D. M. McGeachy officiating.

The pallbearers will be former Federal associates of Mr. Swann when he was deputy U. S. Marshall, and are as follows: Brownlow Jackson, J. M. Baley, M. A. West, J. M. Padgett and W. A. Lytle.

The deceased is survived by his widow and three children: Fred E. Swann, Roy L. Swann, and Mrs. Charles Edwards, all of Tryon; also the three sisters, Mrs. W. W. Ballard, Mrs. John Monroe, Mrs. Lewis Blackwell; and two brothers, Herman Swann of Highpoint and Stanley Swann of West Asheville.

Mr. Swann had made Polk county his home for 35 years. He was formerly superintendent of the knitting mill at Lynn, was a member of the legislature and a deputy U. S. Marshall. He took an active part in civic affairs of the county and was prominently connected with Republican politics of the state.

The opening date and the personnel at Rainbow Lake were decided upon at a recent meeting of the commissioners of public works.

The lake, located near Boiling Springs and popular for water sort activities, will open June 1.
