a few inches. Did the rooster get scared? He just spread out his wings as if to fight and in chicken language said, "Well, blow me down; come on big boy, if you want to fight."

Speaking of vacations and traveling, the writer's little girl told him the other day that she used to think that the world was very big, with Asheville on one end and Spartanburg on the other. The first trip she made to Spartanburg she asked every time she came to a group of houses what town that was. Mother said each time, "This is the country." Finally the little girl said, "Well, isn't the country big?"

Lawyer McCown asked the edi-
