

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Waverly Hester Wins Tryon Tennis Trophy

In one of the hardest fought battles ever seen on the Tryon Tennis courts Wednesday afternoon Waverly Hester defeated Fred McLaughlin in the finals of the Tryon Tennis Association tournament. The score was 6-3; 6-8; 6-4; 4-6; 6-4, making a total of 53 games and five sets of tennis. Mr. Hester, the new champion defeated last year's champion, J. Lee Lacendar, a few days ago. In the contest yesterday Mr. McLaughlin won 25 games and Mr. Hester 28.

Mrs. C. C. Lindsey

Funeral services were conducted yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at Reynolds funeral home for Mrs. Catherine Cook Lindsey, 80, who died Monday at her home on Sunset Drive.

Dr. C. C. Weaver, pastor of Central Methodist church officiated. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Lindsey is survived by one son, W. E. Lindsey, of Los Angeles, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. J. Hamilton Slagle, Mrs. Eugene Gudger, and Miss Dora Lindsey, all of Asheville, and Mrs. H. C. Koonce, of Atlanta, Ga.; eight grandchildren, of whom two, Lindsey Gudger and Hamilton Slagle, live in Asheville and five great-grandchildren.—Asheville Citizen.

The deceased was a great-grandmother of Misses Patricia and Carolyn Slagle of Tryon.

Visit White House

Two women whose mountain-top workshop has been visited by three Presidents' wives—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, Mrs. Herbert Hoover and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt—made their first visit to the White House yesterday.

They are Miss Eleanor Vance and Miss Charlotte Yale, toymakers and woodcarvers of Tryon, N. C.—Washington (D. C.) Evening Star.

Exchange For Tax Exempt. Certificates

If you have tax exemption certificates left over from last year, it will be necessary to get these transferred and replaced by new certificates in order to use them for cotton this year. Such certificates will be transferred in the county agent's office Wednesday, May 29th. As this is the only day in which you can get them transferred, be sure to see me on next Wednesday if you want them transferred.

F. V. HARRIS,
Asst. in Cotton Adj.

M. R. McCown and Thomas Costa are in Cleveland, O., on business.

Mrs. T. T. Ballenger, who has been visiting relatives here accompanied Mrs. Richard Ballenger to Hickory on Wednesday for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hedrick moved to Hendersonville today.

Mrs. Edward Ellertson, who spent the winter with her son, Homer Ellertson, and Mrs. Ellertson, has returned to River Fall, Wis.