FROM GERMANY

Gunterstal bei Freiburg
May 14, 1935

Dear Vining—

We have traveled a good deal, spent a few days each in Bremen, Lubeck, on the island of Ruegen, in Berlin, Heidelberg, and are now settled for a few days rest in Freiburg in Baden, one of the most beautiful cities in Germany.

From the time we entered Germany we were struck by the cleanliness, orderliness, and purposefulness of everything and everybody. You see no loiterers, no beggars, no dissatisfied faces. People talk quite freely and you may be sure, I have taken every opportunity to make them talk. On the trains, on the streets, and on our walks in the country we have plenty of chances to talk with people of all kinds of classes. They are all convinced that they will pull through, they know that they will succeed and are satisfied to make any sacrifice to obtain their goal. I suppose, that there are grumblers but they are so few that they can be disregarded. Germany is more united today than I ever thought it could be. There are no more Bavarians or Saxons or Prussians as formerly but they are Germans first and last. I may seem to you prejudiced, but it is not my own opinion alone. We have met people from different nationalities on the trains and in the hotels and some of them who have traveled here two or three years ago are astonished at the change that has taken place, at the will to succeed.

Greetings to all our friends in Tryon. Almost one third of our vacation is over and we have a lot more to see.

Auf Wiedersehen,
von Kahlden

SENATOR FISHER, 82

Former Senator J. C. Fisher is 82 years old today. Among many greetings received is a letter and gift from Congressman Zebulon Weaver. Mr. Fisher has been ill for sometime, but his past influence and political leadership not only in the county but in the state has given him a wide circle of friends who extend best wishes on his 82nd birthday.

A New Hostess

Miss Kathleen Heritage, new home economist for the Duke Power Co. will be in Tryon on Wednesday afternoon for an At Home period at the offices of the Duke Power Co. Miss Heritage succeeds Mrs. Leila A. Flemming who has gone to Tennessee. Manager Bowen cordially invites all Tryon people to drop in and meet Miss Heritage who may be of service in helping them to get the most benefit from their electric refrigeration.

CAFE ROBBED

Thieves entered the Tryon Cafe Sunday night and took a considerable amount of food, meats, eggs, chickens, cigarets, some cash, and the radio. Nearly everything was recovered this morning when the stolen goods were found hidden under some ties across the railroad tracks near the old box factory.

WILCOX WIINS

In the flag tournament played at Tryon Country Club on Saturday Frank S. Wilcox won with a score of 88; handicap 14, making a net of 74. F. P. Bacon was the runner up with a score of 85, handicap 11, net 74. On the drive for play-off Mr. Wilcox drove farther than Mr. Bacon.
