Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

A. W. Flint Passes

Tryon friends were shocked late Thursday afternoon to learn of the death of Albert Wilkinson Flint in Detroit. Burial services will be held this afternoon in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Flint left Tryon a few weeks ago and were making their temporary home at the Parkhurst Apartments. A message was received yesterday morning of his sudden serious illness.

Bill Ward, Life Guard

Bill Ward, Tryon Eagle Scout and holder of a Life Saving Merit Badge, is the new life guard at the Tryon Country club swimming pool which opened yesterday. Parents can now send their small children to the club and be assured of protection. A new platform and bath houses have been constructed and the pool promises to be a center of recreation for those who like swimming and diving.
