

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Edgewood Inn Opens

Edgewood Inn which was recently purchased by Tom Costa and is being operated under the management of Miss Floy Seeley, formerly of Cleveland, O., will open its dining room to the public on Sunday. A new feature in dining room service will be the serving of meals at any hour of the day. The Inn is being remodeled some and the reception room and hall have been combined into one big, attractive lobby.

"I Be See'n You"

J. B. Hester, Sr., will have charge of the Tryon Rotary club program Friday at 1 p. m., at Lake Lanier Inn. The chief speaker will be Maj. Bernard Sharp who will speak on "Italy in Abyssinia."

Ladies' Golf Friday

A ladies' golf tournament will be held Friday at the Tryon Country club. Miss Eloise LeBeau will donate the prize for this event. Last week Miss LeBeau won first place and Mrs. F. P. Bacon was the runner-up.

Scouts Fish Fry

Tryon Boy Scouts will have a fish fry this evening at Harmon Field at 6:30. Scoutmaster W. A. Schilleter requests all boys to report at 4:30 to help prepare the supper.

Bacon Is Elected New President Of First Church

Boston, June 4. — A. Barry Bacon, a native of Pontiac, Mich., who spent his boyhood days and received his education in Washington, D. C., and who now is president of one of the oldest specialty department stores in Boston today was elected president of the Mother church, First Church of Christ, Scientist.

He succeeds Dr. John M. Brewer, associate professor at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

The annual meeting held here in the Mother church was attended by 6,000 persons.—Asheville Citizen.

Bass Season Changed

R. B. Williams has received orders from J. A. Bradshaw, district game warden, Candler, N. C., not to open the bass fishing season until June 11th. Mr. Williams states that he wishes all fishermen to take particular note of the change in opening date.

Golf League Opens

The Piedmont Golf League composed of players from Spartanburg, Shelby, Forest City, Marion, Tryon and Morganton will open in Tryon Thursday afternoon when the Forest City players will meet Tryon golfers at the Tryon Country club. Matches will be held Every Thursday afternoon at one of the six cities in the league.