

Washington, June 6. — Quick House approval for President Roosevelt's sharply abridged NRA was arranged tonight by party leaders while three of many proposals for maintaining NRA principles in a codeless business world emerged as subjects of official comment.

Taxation, voluntary agreements and interstate compacts were disclosed to be under consideration as methods through which some officials hope to keep the nation headed toward the social goals of the Blue Eagle. Meantime, two hours of tomorrow's debate were set aside for the temporary legislation requested by the Chief Executive.

Brownlee, Scout's Host

J. E. Brownlee, manager of the A&P store, entertained the Tryon Boy Scouts with a Fish Fry on Thursday afternoon at Harmon Field.

Mrs. Dolph I. Smith and son, Bob, and daughter, Miss Betty, of Anderson, Ind., will arrive in Tryon today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr.

The form in which milk is taken is not important. Some persons like it cold. Others take it when they are ready for sleep and prefer it hot. Still others like it better when it is flavored with cocoa or chocolate or used in soups, sauces or desserts.
