

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 17, 1935 Est. 1-31-23

Tryon Wins

Tryon defeated Balfour Saturday afternoon 3-2 in a close, hard fought baseball game. A large crowd of fans saw the game and were well-pleased with the performance of the players. Tryon is now tied for first place.

Country Club Guests

Out-of-town guests registered at the Country club last week were J. L. Peattie of Landrum, G. F. Hale of Winnetka, Ill.; Bob Smith, Indianapolis; Robt. L. Dargan, Spartanburg; T. H. McKenna and J. L. Mason of Gastonia; E. L. Wings, Sam Coggins, Ned Bobo, C. G. Ewen, R. E. Rupp, Gerald Chapman, H. Metcalf, all of Lyman, S. C.; and H. S. Lanford of Spartanburg.

Nash-Davis

Miss Edith Nash of Landrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Nash, was married on Sunday in Atlanta, Ga., to Mr. Kemp Davis of Morristown, Tenn. The bridal couple left immediately for California and stopped by Landrum and Tryon for a moment's visit with relatives. The bride is a graduate of Maryville college and has been teaching in Tennessee. The groom is a graduate of Vanderbilt Medical college and is now serving as an interne in a government hospital at San Francisco.

Golf League Players

Tryon's Country Club Golf League players will go to Forest City on Thursday afternoon to play a league match. Those going from here are F. P. Bowes, B. B. Bishop, Jr., Earl Rion, Larry Brooks, Lefty Flynn, Nelson Jackson, Jr., F. P. Bacon and Perry Hilton. They will meet from Forest City Guy Williams, M. L. Edwards, Max Watson, Frank Howard, Jack O. Lyle, Dr. Rhinehart, C. C. Blanton, L. L. Taylor.

Law Trees

The Tryon pine and oak trees that grew together in four different places as illustrated in John Hi--'s "Strange As It Seems" are owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Law, and are located near the driveway to their new home. This unique feature will advertise Tryon all over the nation where "Strange As It Seems" is reproduced.

A Fish Tale

Tom Sherman of Greenville, S. C., was reported to have caught a 6¼-lb. bass Sunday at Lake Adger. Witnesses said it was 23 inches long and was 16 inches in circumference.

Electrifying Program

Louis A. Avant will have charge of the Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Edgewood Inn. R. H. Brady, local insurance man, will give the current events talk.