Landrum Masons to Celebrate Festival

For the first time in the Masonic history of South Carolina all the Masonic lodges of the Palmetto state will meet at the same time on Monday night at 8 o'clock. The Landrum lodge will celebrate the Festival of St. John the Evangelist. Tryon and Mill Spring lodges and all visiting Masons are invited. A number of out-of-town lodge officials will take part in the services.

Indian at Rotary Club on Friday

B. L. Ballenger has charge of the Tryon Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Lake Lanier Inn. The principal feature of the meeting will be a program put on by Chief Blue Sky Eagle, the Indian member of the staff of Boy Scout officials at the Lake Lanier Scout camp. Chief Eagle will give several Indian dances including the feather dance, eagle dance, hoop dance and another one.
