

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 1, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Train Kills Man Native Of Lynn

The body of a youth who was killed Thursday night when struck by a passenger train at Zion Hill was identified Saturday as Theodore Parris, 22. Identification was made by the young man's father, W. H. K. Parris, who said he was a farmer in the Cedar Springs section.

The father said he last saw his son about two months ago when he spent the night with his parents. The youth, born at Lynn, N. C., had frequently been away from home since he was 15 years of age, the father said.

The funeral services were conducted Monday morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. H. K. Ezell of Fairforest.

He left his parents; two brothers, Sidney and Russell, and a sister, Agnes.—Spartanburg Herald.

Kilpin at Kilpin

W. E. Kilpin will have charge of the Tryon Kiwanis program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., when the club meets at Edgewood Inn.

Out of Vaccine

Ted Ballenger, Tryon Township supervisor of the inoculation of dogs for rabies states that the work here has been held up on account of a shortage of vaccine as a result of the immediate demand made for it all over the state. He says he will notify dog owners as soon as a new supply of vaccine reaches him.

Tryon Holds Lead In Industrial League

Tryon defeated Hazlewood 3-2 Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field in one of the decisive games of the season as Tryon was tied for first place with two other towns.

Amos Foster pitching for Tryon allowed the visitors only four hits. Hazlewood made its two runs in the 9th inning. Sellers Edwards for Tryon hit a home run in the fifth with one man on base and made the first scores in the game.

Score:

Hazlewood	000	000	002	—	2	4	0
Tryon	000	020	01x	—	3	6	4

Montieth and Robinson; Foster and Capps.

Remember the 4th

Tryon business houses, the bank, postoffice and Tryon Daily Bulletin will be closed on July 4th. It will be a real holiday in Tryon with picnics, hikes, celebrations and services at the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp in the morning and at noon; at Harmon Field with games and contests in the afternoon. Picnic supper at 6:30; fireworks and dancing in the evening. Everything is free at Harmon Field except the baseball game which is a regular league engagement. All fans who see the game are expected to pay their regular admission for this event. Each family or person will bring lunches for the supper and eat separately or in groups according to preference.