MONEY NEEDED

C. J. Lynch states that the fireworks for the Fourth of July celebration have arrived and that the committee is still short of money to pay for them. Everyone who can donate any amount for this entertainment are requested to get in touch with Mr. Lynch as soon as possible in order that this matter may be taken care of as soon as possible. The fireworks display promises to be more colorful this year than ever.

Dance On Fourth

Lake Lanier Inn is being decorated for the July Fourth dance to be held on Thursday evening at the lake. Fielding Cantrell's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. A number of young people are home from college throughout the surrounding section and many of them will wind up their Fourth of July celebration at the Lake Lanier Inn.
