

Not Bulletin on Thursday 4th

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POST OFFICE AT TRYON, N. C., UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Tryon Drops Pair To Enka, 9-4, 6-4

Tryon, July 4. — Tryon lost a pair of games to Enka's industrial league representatives today, 9 to 4 and 6 to 4.

Joe Hall pitched both games for Enka and held Tryon to a total of 17 hits during the games. The first game was played at Enka this morning, and the second game here this afternoon.

Scores:

Tryon 4 11 2
Enka 9 13 1

Hardin and Capps; Hall and Swayngim.

Enka 3 16 1
Tryon 4 6 1

Hall and Swayngim; Foster, Thompson and Capps. — Asheville Citizen.

An exciting event of the afternoon game at Harmon Field was when two Enka fielders ran together in attempting to catch a fly. One player's nose was broken and the other one lost several teeth.

Given Judgment Of $3,100 Against Town of Columbus

J. L. Barringer was given a judgment of $3,100 against the Town of Columbus, Polk county, in a consent order signed in federal court today.

The issues in this bond default suit were reversed, however, until later decision.—Asheville Times.

THRONGS ENJOY CELEBRATION

Several thousand people enjoyed the Fourth of July Celebration at Harmon Field Thursday afternoon and evening. It was the largest crowd ever assembled on the community playground for a July 4th celebration. The fireworks display was beautiful with several new attractive designs, the most popular being the waterfall judging by the applause. Beautiful colored lights decorated the large square dancing ring and hundreds of people from the two Carolinas joined in this event which was halted temporarily by a sprinkling rain, but the crowd of enthusiastic dancers repaired to the Tryon gymnasium and finished there before a packed house.

Fire Destroys Rutherford Co. Fair Grandstand

Forest City, July 4.—Fire swept through the grandstand at the Rutherford county fair grounds near here about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon during a Fourth of July celebration, but the crowd, estimated at 2,500, made an orderly exit and no one was injured.

A few hours before the fire, Rutherford county people, seated in the grandstand, heard an address by Cole L. Blease, former governor of and former U. S. senator from South Carolina.

The presence of mind of two announcers, speaking from the
—Continued from Page One—