Indian Pageant

The public is cordially invited to witness an Indian Pageant at the Piedmont Boy Scout Camp on Thursday evening beginning at 8:15. The Hiawatha pageant will be given under the direction of the Indian staff member, Chief Blue Sky Eagle.

A Good Appointment

His associate members of the county board paid a compliment to Mr. J. R. Mallory when they appointed him a member of the new school district sinking fund commission which was created by an act of the legislature at its recent session.

Mr. Mallory is a successful textile manufacturer in Landrum and has other business interests. He is, we believe, the youngest member of the county board and has faithfully served the people of the county. His appointment to the new sinking fund commission was a vote of confidence by those with whom he has served and the other members of the commission will find in him an earnest and conscientious worker. — Spartanburg Herald.

Ford-Barnette

Miss Geneva Ford and Mr. Lonnie Barnette were married Monday at noon in Spartanburg. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Ford of Tryon and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnette of Landrum, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Barnette will make their home in Tryon.

At Sea

"North Carolina editors are going to sea this week for their annual summer convention and to bring the figurative and the literal into pleasant harmony, it would be proper for them to invite the North Carolina delegation in Congress to be their guests."—Charlotte Observer.

The congressmen are already at sea, and have been there for some time.

Kiwanis Picnic

Tryon Kiwanians and guests will assemble at Lake Lanier dock this afternoon at 6:30 for their annual picnic.

Ted Ballenger has accepted a position with the Tryon A&P Tea Co., and succeeds William Burnett, who is now with the Southern Bell Telephone Co., at Asheville.

Master Tommy Southworth of Norfolk, Va., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Rozelle Fisher.

F. W. Brownlee and family are in Charleston, S. C., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Brownlee's mother, Mrs. Wragg.

Dance Wednesday

Advertisement in today's Bulletin announces a combination round and square dance to be given in the Tryon gymnasium on Wednesday evening from 9 to 1 o'clock. Barnett brothers' string band will furnish the music. This band has an extensive reputation as good musicians.
