

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 22, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

State Checkers to Play at Landrum

The annual tournament of the South Carolina checker association will be held on Wednesday at Landrum. Play will start at about 10 a. m.

The state checker champion, E. E. Styles, of Travelers Rest, will defend his championship and Fred Smith of Pauline, runner-up last year, will participate in the tournament.

The president of the association is Frank Raysor of Greenville.

Checker enthusiasts from over this section will take part in the matches—Spartanburg Herald.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will meet on Tuesday at Edgewood Inn at 1 p. m. R. L. McNeely in charge of the program. Seth M. Vining will present the current events.

FIRE SATURDAY

Prompt response on the part of the Tryon Fire Department extinguished the flames from a hot water heater at the F. J. McDonald home on Saturday afternoon. No damage.

Guests at Lake Lanier Inn during the week-end were R. G. Riley of Chicago, Miss Ashton Hatcher of Chester, Va., Miss Elva Barrow of Greensboro, N. C., Misses Lila and May Curtis and Miss Joe Tilda Corralin of Bloomington, Ill.

Two Dances Are On Program This Week

A dance will be given on Tuesday night at the School gymnasium with Luke Chaney's orchestra furnishing the music.

Lake Lanier Inn will give a dance on Friday evening at the inn with Bill Davenport's orchestra rendering the music from 10 to 1:30 o'clock.

Sunday's Asheville Citizen reported that 20 years ago today G. S. Arthur and two sons had arrived from Greensboro, N. C.

TRYON'S THEATRE

MONDAY & TUESDAY

Gold Diggers of 1935

with

DICK POWELL

Adolph Menjou, Gloria Stuart, Alice Brady, Hugh Herbert, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Joseph Cawthorn, Grant Mitchell, Dorothy Dare, Ramon and Rosita.