

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Saluda Player Makes Good With Chicago

Through the kindness of Henry Harrington of Brampton, Mich., we have a squib and cartoon of Walter Stephenson, formerly of Saluda but now of the Chicago Cubs. Art Ward writing in the Chicago Tribune says, "Wally Stephenson, who comes from one of the Carolinas (It doesn't matter which), stands up in the dug-out and bares his head every time "Dixie" is played on the canned music device at Wrigley Field." This is Walter's first year in the Major League and he is said to be making good as a catcher for the Cubs. He has gotten in a few games as pinch hitter and last reports showed him batting over 300.

Chamber Commerce Meets on Wednesday

President S. T. Wood announces that the Tryon Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at Missildine's Hall. Reports of the year's work will be given and all citizens interested in the future of Tryon are urged to attend this meeting as matters of importance will be discussed.

Raleigh, July 29—James H. Pou, one of the outstanding lawyers of North Carolina, died at his home here this morning at 9:40 after being in poor health for several months.

Advise Postponement School Opening Date

Raleigh, July 29. — Postponement of public school openings scheduled for September was advised today by Dr. J. C. Knox, state epidemiologist, who said the expected seasonal decline of infantile paralysis may be so slow as to make it advisable for the institutions not to begin their fall terms until October 1st.

Peaceful Solution To Be Sought

London, July 29. — Anthony Eden, Britain's minister for League of Nations affairs, pocketed powerfully phrased instructions today and prepared to go first to Paris, then to the League of Nations council meeting at Geneva, seeking a peaceful solution of the Italo-Abyssinian dispute.

At Kiwanis Today

Another picnic for the whole community was discussed today and a committee appointed composed of Hoyt O. Prince, W. E. Kilpin, L. A. Avant and C. J. Lynch. The Kiwanis wheel chair which is loaned from time to time to invalids is to be repaired. Among the current events items offered by the Secretary was one from this week's Polk County News which states that the Kiwanis purebred pigs donated to 4-H club boys are increasing in number and are being distributed to worthy boys all over the county.