Henry

Genova, Col., July 27.

Dear Folks:—

Arrived here about 5 o'clock. Two hours behind the time out east. Had my connecting rod bearings tightened in St. Mary's, Kan. The fellow didn't do a good job of it and they soon began knocking again. Had them tightened again here and she doesn't knock a bit. Runs better than ever now. Hot country here. Miles in hot sun. 98 in shade. Saw a lot of oil wells. Car uses more oil than it should. May spend the night in Denver. Awfully lonesome now. Be glad when I get to Portland. Haven't had a bit of trouble, other than the connecting rods. They are all right now. I will soon hit the Rockies. I will miss the worse places, thanks to goodness. Take my time all the way. Hope everyone is OK. Write me in about 4 or 5 days.
