Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, AUG. 1, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Henry

Denver, Col., July 28.

Dear Folks:—

Sta Arrived in Denver about 10 last night. Woke up this morning and got my first view of the Rockies. They are very rugged and look bare from here. Snow is on top of them. Oh, boy, is it cold out here at night. Hot in the day time. By the way, I saw Pike's Peak also. I will miss most of the mountains the way I am going. I'm going up by Ft. Collins.

My Ford runs like a sewing machine since I had my connecting rod bearings tightened up. Not a single knock.

Tell Mr. Vining where I am so he can put it in The Bulletin. I don't have much time to write.

So long. Will write again this afternoon.

HENRY, JR.

Pageant Tonight

shri Tonight and next Thursday evening will be the last times local people will have the opportunity of seeing the beautiful Indian pageants presented at the Piedmont Boy Scout camp under the direction of Chief Sky Blue Eagle. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele leaves on August 20 for Washington, D. C., to attend the Scout Jamboree where he will be the chief official recording the event.

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, July 31. —Emperor Haile Selassie's government—hoping for peace with Italy but carefully keeping its powder dry—told the world in ringing language today Ethiopia's independence was not for sale or barter.

Wood Re-Elected Head of C. of C.

The annual meeting of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday evening at Missildine's Hall. Reports of the year's work were presented and showed that the business people of the community had been saved considerable money by refusing permits for freak advertising, prompt secretarial services had been rendered during the year, lot of advertising and folders had been distributed, a deficit had been wiped out and a surplus of over $80 left in the treasury. A nominating committee composed of R. S. Jackson, J. B. Hester and R. L. McNeely returned the following report which was adopted: President, S. T. Wood; vice-president, Seth M. Vining; directors: B. L. Ballenger, E. E. Missildine, C. J. Lynch, R. W. Stone, K. A. Bowen.
