Boxing Postponed

The boxing match between B. Case and Rob Walker for the championship of Polk county has been postponed until Monday, August 19, on account of Walker not being in condition for the fight, it is said.

Picnic Postponed

The Methodist picnic scheduled for tomorrow night has been postponed until a later date.

Pageant Tonight

Tonight will be the last chance local people will have to see the beautiful Indian pageant at the Piedmont Boy Scout camp. The public is cordially invited to witness this event.

Brown at Kiwanis

J. Hertz Brown, prominent attorney of Spartanburg gave an interesting talk on the legal profession at the Tryon Kiwanis meeting on Tuesday at Edgewood Inn. Mr. Brown defended the legal profession as being on a par with any other profession. The legal profession has to sell its services to the public the same as any merchant and it offers to the public just what it will buy. The legal profession will improve in proportion to the general improvement of the public demands. Hoyt O. Prince had charge of the program.

Tryon Boys Club Doing Good Work

The Tryon Boys' club passed its first monthly birthday this last week. The forty boys composing the club felt quite jubilant at the growth of the club in numbers and in spirit. These boys are a real credit to Tryon and show it not only on the baseball diamond, but in the craftsmanlike way in which they are making their belts, moccasins, and overseas caps. It is not unknown for a boy to rip out a whole belt in order to make it better or for another to take yards of weaving out of a moccasin to make it a more perfect fit.

The club has progressed in organization as well as in numbers and skill. The leaders are Dr. Taylor, Bob Little, Nelson Jackson, III, Ted Averill; Roy English did fine work until he left Tryon. Very special mention must be made of Mr. Romaine Stone who teaches each day, as a volunteer, a very fine class in drawing, giving the boys first class instruction in art.

Then come three outstanding boys as Group Leaders: Thurston Arledge, Edward Manville, and Bert Metcalf, each of whom heads up a group of 12 or 13 boys. These groups are competing in athletics, attendance, behaviour, workmanship and other ways for which points are given. The daily baseball games are great fun and the discussion half-hour takes up behaviour problems such as sportsmanship, fair play, courtesy to smaller boys, and general problems of good citizenship. As some one put it the club is there to help become good workmen, good sports-
