HENRY

Portland, Ore., Aug. 3.

Dear Folks:—

I arrived here at my journey's end last night about 1 o'clock. Surprised grandma and went to bed. I have been 11 days on the road and used $18.11 worth of gas and about $7.26 for oil. A total of $25.37. Got my first view of Mt. Hood about 200 miles from Portland. Along the Columbia River highway I got the best views I ever got in my whole trip. The beautiful mountains with the large Columbia River flowing through their valleys is a sight never to be forgotten. I went through the famed tunnels on the highways. I saw the Bridal Veil Falls the Horsetail Falls and several others. My Ford runs as good as ever. Averaged about 36 miles per gallon of gas on whole trip, mountains and all. Tell Mr. Vining I'm writing up my whole trip to you so you can give it to him.

Mercury Soars To Dizzy Heights In Middle West

A tenacious heat wave, making up in intensity this summer for its late start over that of last year, renewed its grip yesterday (Wednesday) on middle America after a brief respite of cooling breezes and scattered showers.

Oklahoma added another heat fatality to a list which has exceeded 150 in the nation for the summer. Carl Stewart, 19, son of Sheriff Bud Stewart of McCurtain

J. S. Massenburg Gets Important WPA Job

Raleigh, Aug. 7.—Additional appointments to important positions on the staff of the State Works Progress administration were confirmed here today by Administrator George W. Coan, Jr.

J. S. Massenburg, who handled compensation claims for the North Carolina Emergency Relief administration, was named State compensation officer.

E. G. Padgett, NCERA safety director, will hold the same position in the WPA and will have R. E. Paschal as his assistant.

District offices of the WPA are expected to designate local compensation officers and safety directors to work with the State

C. E. McIntosh of Chapel Hill, former University professor and director of the emergency education program, will head the WPA education and youth divisions with W. H. Jones as his assistant.—Charlotte Observer.

Sunday Fishing

Attorney J. R. Burgess of Columbus states that a number of people have asked him about the law on Sunday fishing. He states that the 3955 Code of North Carolina provides that anyone being of the age of 14 and upwards fishing on Sunday shall pay a fine of $1. Mr. Burgess states that this is a very old law.

Today is the birthday anniversary of C. J. Lynch and C. W. Nessmith.
