LARGE DANCE

The dance at Lake Lanier Inn Friday evening was one of the largest ever given at the Lake. About 75 couples attended and danced to the music of Luke Chaney's 11-piece orchestra. The colored light and reflections in the lake water added considerable color to the beautiful dances at the Inn. A dance is being planned for next Friday to be held out of doors on the dock.

Fox Hunting License

Game protector Burton Williams states that he has instructions from headquarters to make known the fact that the state law requires non-resident fox hunters to pay a license of $15.25 by Monday, August 12.

AT KIWANIS
