Rotary Governor Gives Inspiring Address Here

Governor George Ivy of Charlotte, head of the 58th Rotary International district covering all of South Carolina and part of North Carolina gave an inspiring address at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at the club's luncheon held at Lake Lanier Inn. He outlined the ideals and principles of Rotary which seeks the cultivation of friendships that enables Rotarians to be of service to one another; ideals that promote better business and professional standards, ideals that create a love of community service which works as a leavening force for good in all worthy community organizations and activities; principles that hold Rotary clubs together all over the world and foster a spirit of universal brotherhood that at times has aided in avoiding serious conflicts and has promoted goodwill and fair trade. He also spoke of the personal inspirations he has received in meeting Rotarians from all parts of the world, men who have common ideals of service to their fellowman.

Large Crowd Attends Dance at Lake Lanier

A large crowd, many of them from nearby cities attended the moonlight dance at Lake Lanier Inn on Friday evening. It was probably the largest crowd that ever attended a dance at Lake Lanier Inn. Approximately 175 people enjoyed the occasion. Luke Chaney's orchestra furnished the music. Another dance is scheduled for August 30.
