

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Vol. 8 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUG. 20, 1935 Est. 1-31-28

Miss Randle To Teach In Tryon Hi

Miss Genevieve Randle of Sumter, S. C., has been elected to teach English and history in the Tryon high school for the 1935-36 session to succeed Miss Louise Hayes. Miss Randle is a graduate of Winthrop college. She has completed enough graduate work for an M. A. Degree, having taken special work at Winthrop college, N. C. C. W., and Asheville Normal. She has 12 years' experience, having taught in the high schools of Asheville, New Bern, Canton, Andrews, and Monroe, in the State of North Carolina. Miss Randall has the very best recommendations from each school in which she has taught.

Trout Fishing Season Closes on August, 31st

R. B. Williams, Polk county game protector, states that he wishes to inform the fishermen that the season for trout fishing closes on Saturday, August 31st.

Brotherhood Meets

The Wesley Brotherhood will meet on Thursday evening at the Tryon Methodist church at 7 o'clock. The ladies society will furnish the supper.

Baseball Trials to Begin Monday, September 9th

Spartanburg, S. C.—The site of the fall trial camp operated in the Piedmont Region by one of the clubs in the World Champion St. Louis Cardinal organization has been changed this year from Greensboro, N. C., to Spartanburg, S. C., and the operating club will be the Rochester Club of the International League.

The trials will be conducted at Duncan Park in Spartanburg beginning at 9 a. m., Monday, September 9, and continuing through the week. The camp will be open to any player between the ages of seventeen and twenty-three, who believes he has the ability to play baseball in organized professional leagues. Those players who in the opinion of a group of scouts have ability to advance in the ranks of professional ball will be offered contracts for the 1936 season.

Lankford Reunion

The Lankford annual family reunion will be held on Sunday, August 25, at Harmon Field. Relatives from North and South Carolina will unite in a big basket dinner. All friends are cordially invited to bring their baskets and join them.