

Mrs. C. B. McFee of Asheville is visiting the Misses Ruth and Daisy McFee.

Robert Burnett of the Duke Power Company returns today from Detroit where he spent his vacation.

Mrs. N. L. Wilson and Miss Ola Mae McFee were joint hostesses on Thursday evening at a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Arledge, recent bride and groom.

Miller C. Foster of Spartanburg and Tryon has just been appointed one of the delegates to represent South Carolina in the national convention of the American Legion at St. Louis, Mo., according to an announcement made in today's Spartanburg Herald by Commander James R. Turner of Bennettsville.

Tau Rock Vineyards' grapes are now ripe! Buy them from our stands at the packing shed on Tryon-Saluda highway. Open in the evenings.—Adv. (tf).

The South Carolina boy who came to Polk county to See Some Whiskey Made, is privileged to remain for a period of six months to See Some Roads Built.

—James E. Johnson, in The Polk County News.

A customer said yesterday, "I bring all my Prescriptions here because I know that your drugs are fresh and that your prices are reasonable. Bring us yours."

SLACK'S PHARMACY

There is a demand for some cheap articles, but not in DRY CLEANING. People who are careful about their appearance demand the best. Send it to—

RECTOR'S
CLEANERS & DYERS

A CLOSE OUT SALE

Of Overcoats, Suits and Odd Trousers

Made of Genuine Tryon Homespun

NOW IN PROGRESS

AT THE

Appalachian Hand Weavers

If you will need a new Overcoat or Suit for fall, it will pay you to come down and look over these values. Slight alterations might be necessary in some instances, but at that the above prices make these garments unusual BARGAINS!