Saluda Defeats Fruitland, 11-2

Saluda defeated Fruitland of the Henderson county league on Saturday by the score of 11 to 2.

Ray Ward pitched for Saluda and was very effective. He allowed them only six hits.

Saluda batsmen pounded out 15 safeties. Among them a home run by Phil Heatherly with one man on, in the second inning.

Egerton and Waldrop connected safely three times each. While L. Heatherly and P. Heatherly smacked two hits each.

Fruitland scored in the second and sixth innings. In the second Patillo hit a home run.

Saluda's big scoring spree started in the second inning and resulted in five runs.

Saluda plays Fletcher at Balfour on Thursday and it should be a good game.

Box score: R. H. E.
Saluda..... 11 15 1
Fruitland..... 2 6 4
Pitchers—Saluda, Ward; Fruitland, Fisher.

People demand equality, but what they really desire is a chance to snub those who snub them now.—Robert Quillen's Fountain Inn Tribune.
